

PLAYERS ACE, SAYS COACH

MATCHPOINT Tennis North Lakes players Ben McGrath, Archer Bushell, Jasmine Aley, Jayden Cutmore and Ella Vietheer are a talented bunch.

The five hotshots were among 31 players – 21 from Matchpoint – who competed at the Pine Rivers District School Sport tennis trials at Matchpoint on April 24.

They shone and will now compete at the Metropolitan North School Sport regional selection trials at Tennyson on May 30.

“These kids are all very talented ... they’re an incredibly talented bunch,” Matchpoint’s Laura Spellacy said.

Spellacy said the five – McGrath and Vietheer from Genesis Christian College, Aley and Bushell from North Lakes State College, and Cutmore from The Lakes College – trained hard between two and four times every week under coaches Brad Johns, Anthony Aley and Alex Aley.

“I think they all have a good shot of making the state competition,” Spellacy said.

Metropolitan North will select one regional team of four boys and four girls to

