

Dancers vying for title

COLLEGE TROUPE MAKES FINALS OF NATIONAL COMPETITION

GENESIS Christian College Dance Company has danced its way to the DanceLife Unite National Grand Finals.

The Genesis troupe, which formed in 2012, has 18 students from Year 7 to 12.

Genesis Christian College head of Dance and Drama Emily Briddock said each member had a passion for dance and practised their routines weekly. "Our dancers give their time outside of school hours to practise and perform for the love of dance," Ms Briddock said.

The company recently competed in the DanceLife Unite competition in Brisbane.

Competing in the categories of Jazz, Hip Hop, Contemporary, Lyrical and Entertainment, Genesis Dance Company placed third and fourth. The dancers will compete in the DanceLife Unite National Grand Finals, at Sydney's Luna Park, from September 24-28 and for a chance to take part in workshops with leading choreographers.

Genesis Christian College Dance Company has made national finals.