6 CONFESSIONAL CREED

6.1 We believe and confess the interpretation of the Christian Faith as set forth in the Belgic Confession of Faith and/or The Heidelberg Catechism and/or The Westminster Confession of Faith, and in particular confirm:

(a) That the Scripture of the Old and New Testaments is the infallible Word of God, our supreme and absolute standard by which our whole life is to be directed and judged, and indispensable and determinative for our knowledge of God, of ourselves, and the rest of creation.

(b) That there is one God, eternal and indivisible in whom are three Persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit – one Triune God.

(c) That all things were created by God in and through Jesus Christ by His Word and Spirit, according to His eternal purpose and for His own glory; that all things are upheld and controlled by Him, and that He reveals Himself in all that He has created and made.

(d) That man was created in the image of God to enjoy communion with His Creator, to exercise dominion over the creation to the glory of God, and to interpret all reality in accordance with His design and law; that man sinned by disobeying the express command of God and fell from the estate in which he was created; and that by the curse justly imposed on man everyone is cut off from communion with God, and is dead in sins, wholly corrupt throughout the whole man, and utterly indisposed, disable, and made opposite to all good and wholly inclined to all evil.

(e) That Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son and is God incarnate, born of the virgin Mary, who, laying down His life for his sheep, paid the price of sin for them, being a substitute for all who truly believe in Him; that on the third day He rose bodily from the dead by the power of God, and is now seated at God’s right hand, possessing all power and authority; and that, at the time appointed, He will come in power and glory to judge the world in righteousness, and establish a new heaven and a new earth where righteousness dwells.

(f) That the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity effectually applies the salvation secured by Christ to His people, uniting them to Him by faith; that He is the source of faith in Jesus Christ, of true knowledge, and a new sanctified life; and that at the point of faith, the believer is Baptised with all the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

(g) That those who are effectually called by the Holy Spirit are also freely justified in God’s sight, which saving faith is the alone instrument of Justification, and yet it is not alone in the person justified, but is ever accompanied with all other saving graces.
6.2 Confessing these teachings of the Word of God as set forth in the Reformed Confessions, we believe:-

(a) That Scripture is indispensable and central to education, shedding its light over the whole of man’s life and its meaning, and furnishing the framework and basic facts for the educational task.

(b) That the educational task is to teach all subjects in the light of God’s revelation in the Scripture of the Old and New Testaments so that man may be prepared and equipped for his office and calling in this world as God’s image – bearer and steward.

(c) That, while true education is possible only where the fear of God is re-established by God’s grace in the heart of man, it is the duty of the Christian Community and especially Christian parents to provide God-centered and Scripture-directed education so that covenant children may be brought up “In the training and instruction of the Lord”. (Eph. 6:4)

(d) That where such education is not provided it is right and proper for Christians to joint together to facilitate the education of children in a way glorying to Christ; that such a school community lawfully established is not subject as regards its special task, to Church or state, or any outside authority, but only to Christ; and that, in its prosecution of that special task, it will refrain from activities that infringe on the special tasks of the family, the church, the state, or any other societal structure.

(e) That while the school is entitled to expect freedom from interference in its special task, it is required to respect and uphold all legitimate authority according to the Word of God.

(f) That the authority of the teacher over the student is a delegated authority (‘in loco parentis’) that it is to be upheld by the whole school community; and that it is to be exercised not only according to the principles of God’s Word but also with the awareness that those who exercise authority must give an account to Him.

(g) That in as much as none are exempt from the effects of sin, and no area of life remains unstained by it, the school community and especially those with the responsibility of teaching, must guard against all forms of false religion, and in particular, Humanism.

(h) That, as the exercise of the educational task is at every point dependent on the grace and power of God, it is necessary that the school Community, parents and teachers undertake their task in prayerful dependence on Him, the giver of every good and perfect gift, so that all may follow and serve Him in all spheres of life, and that His great Name may be glorified in all things.
