

Rachel Setter, of Genesis Christian College, has impressed with her academic and leadership qualities.

Rachel in Lions Youth of Year win

YEAR 12 student Rachel Setter has taken out the Kallangur Lions Youth of the Year Award.

Kallangur Lions' Glen Drew has co-ordinated the event for the past 20 years and said it was designed to encourage and develop leadership qualities in youth.

The event, which has been sponsored by the Kallangur Lions for 40 years, is open to any student aged between 15 and 19. It was judged by Bray Park State School deputy principal Peter Orphanides.

"Rachel's academic achievements and involvement in extra projects at school, together with other qualities including leadership, personality, sportsmanship, public speaking, good citizenship and community involvement assisting less fortunate people in our community greatly impressed Peter," Mr Drew said.

Rachel will now progress to the regional finals.
