

Students pay tribute to Anzacs

SPECIAL EVENT: The 2013 Anzac Day ceremony at the Pine Rivers High School, Strathpine. Picture: BRAD COOPER

Abigail Peet, Jake Martin, Sophie Kingsford, Mr Pat Casey, Jessica Moy, Edward Hay and Luke Delaney place handmade wreaths at Genesis Christian College.

Students place wreaths at Strathpine State School.

PINE Rivers schools held their own commemorations this week before Anzac Day.

On Wednesday, Pine Rivers State High students led a march from Kallangur Fair to North Leagues and Services Club, under the banner State Schools Respect Our Armed Forces.

A Strathpine West State School service saw the placing of wreaths made by the pupils. A Pine Rivers Nashos Association scheme will see Belgian children lay the same wreaths on Australian war graves on Remembrance Day.

Strathpine State School principal John Lanau said pupils, parents and staff attended Tuesday's commemoration, while Genesis Christian College Primary Student Leaders and veteran Pat Casey, Welfare Officer of the National Servicemen's Association of Pine Rivers, placed wreaths an Anzac service on Wednesday.

For more pictures visit questnews.com.au/moreton

Emma Robinson at the Pine Rivers High School Anzac Day ceremony.